

An the American Idol Winner is....

...Kris Allen!!

Last night saw the ending of the 8th American Idol competition. Starting off with pretty poor ratings this year, Idol still managed to receive the highest amount of votes than previous seasons.

The red carpet saw some pretty big named celebs - Fergie, Keith Urban, and a string of past Idol contestants like Justin Guarini and Kimberly Caldwell, who was wearing a very original black and teal dress that seemed a tad too much for this show - but I liked her gold bracelet.

I honestly have to say the Paula Abdul looked pretty stunning in her gold beaded gown - especially nestled between Adam Lambert and Kris Allen. Her hair was pulled nicely back to show off some cool gold chandelier earrings - and I loved her cool diamond and gold bracelet and bling cocktail ring - which seem to be a popular red carpet style for celebrity jewelry.

Other celeb styles on the red carpet last night were Chris Daughtry and his manly collection of sterling silver

necklaces and stainless steel jewelry;

pretty in pink Carrie Underwood with her

pearl drop earrings; and Brooke white with an awful summer dress but cool gold

bangle bracelets.

My favorite had to be Syesha Mercado - a great source for new celebrity style

jewelry with her uber-tight black dress, funky high heeled

shoes, and her cool clunky silver bangle bracelets and dangling earrings. This little songstress just has a great sense of fashion!

So, another season of bad singers, good singers, Paul

Abdul gossip, and Simon Cowell comments...can't wait till next year!
